Thoughts from the Rectory for May 2024

Dear Friends,

Why is it that when the house is full of chocolate all I want is a sweet?

I'm writing this a week after Easter and the Vicarage is still littered with the remnants of Easter eggs from family and 'left over' chocolate eggs from church events, but I really don't fancy any chocolate.

What I really crave is a Liquorice Allsort!

However, instead of going out to buy some I thought I would talk about them instead.

Liquorice Allsorts have been around since 1899 and the story goes that one day Bassetts sent one of their salesmen, Charlie Thompson, from their factory in Sheffield to Leicester to demonstrate their newly manufactured liquorice sweets to a potential buyer. During the demonstration the salesman accidently knocked over his box of samples on to the floor in front of the buyer. Seeing all the wonderful, colourful mix of sweets on the floor, the buyer asked Bassetts to produce just such an assortment for him to sell. What this became was the mix of sweets we now know as Liquorice Allsorts.

In the aftermath of Easter the disciples were left a bit like the box of liquorice samples upended on the floor. They were a bit of a 'hotch-potch' of people – fishermen, a tax collector, activists and others who we know little about, each with their own colourful personalities, good and bad traits, each with their complex layers of failures and doubts just like the diverse 'allsorts' in the box. While Jesus had been alive they had stayed in reasonable order because Jesus had made it so (like the box of sample sweets the salesman carried).

But when Jesus was arrested and crucified the disciples were scattered, and although after the Resurrection on Easter Day they regrouped in the upper room for a while, like the liquorice sweets being replaced in their sample box for the journey back to Bassetts, here they were after Jesus' Ascension back to heaven, feeling as if they had been poured out onto the floor all over again in a mess and a mix up.

But sometimes from what looks like chaos something wonderful begins.

The 'happy accident' of the salesman and his liquorice sweets became the well-loved box of Liquorice Allsorts that is still popular today, over 120 years later.

And the disciples?

Well, they went on to be filled with the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (this year celebrated in our churches on 19th May) and started the Christian Church which shared the Good News of Jesus with all the world. The Christian Church is still sharing that Good News now, over 2000 years later and encouraging people, whoever they are, to follow in the way of life that Jesus demonstrated and to share God's love in the world.

Just like Jesus called a bunch of 'all sorts' to follow him and to build something wonderful to share God's love, God still calls all sorts of people to be part of the Church today, in their local churches, in villages, in towns and cities all over the world.

Whoever you are, whatever your past holds, whatever you look like, whatever age you are, you are welcome in God's Church because God loves all sorts!

Blessings

Elveen

Cercis Siliquastrum

Cercis Siliquastrum is usually grown as a deciduous multi stemmed shrub and sometimes as a tree. It has heart shaped leaves but is preceded by rosy pink pea shaped clusters of flowers that grow from its branches and even on its trunk. It bears reddish pods in the autumn which resemble those of beans. Although native to the Mediterranean and the Middle East it happily grows in the UK.

This shrub or tree flowers at Easter time. While the Bible mentions Judas hanging himself in Matthew 27:5, it does not specify which kind of tree. A popular legend may be routed in a translation error, with the French name for the tree "arbre de Judee", Judea's tree being mistakenly translated or interpreted as Judas' tree.

Although this tree may be associated with the greatest betrayal, its flowering is a very brief but welcome addition to the spring garden. I love my Judas tree despite the story behind it.

Kind regards,

Anne Bridgeman

"Thy Kingdom Come" is 29th May (Ascension Day) to 8th June (Pentecost)

Christians across the world are invited to unite in prayer, an international, ecumenical movement that brings Christians together to pray and encounter the love of Jesus Christ.

Spanning these 11 days, this global wave of prayer is about deepening our own relationship with God, while praying for others to experience that same transformation.

We are all asked to pray, daily, for five people we know to come to know Jesus Christ, and to encourage others to pray all over the world.

May - Theme: Thy Kingdom Come

Monday: Our Father in Heaven, Hallowed Be Your Name

The name of the Lord is sacred and worthy of all honour. As we gather together in the Mothers' Union, we unite in reverence to glorify His name, knowing that it is through His name we are strengthened, uplifted, and sustained. Just as we seek to honour Him in all we do, may our lives reflect the holiness of His presence, bringing light and grace to those around us.

"Hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Matthew 6:9-10

Heavenly Father, we come before You with reverence, thanking You for the gift of the Mothers' Union and for the many blessings You have poured into our lives. May we always honour Your name in our hearts, our actions, and our service. We pray that Your kingdom will be made known through our work, and that Your will be done in our lives and in our communities. May we continue to be vessels of Your love and grace.

In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.

May we as Mothers' Union be a reflection of God's holy name, always striving to honour Him in all that we do.

Tuesday: Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread

Just as God provides us with what we need each day, we are called to provide for one another—nurturing and sustaining each other with the love and care that reflects God's provision.

"Give us today our daily bread." Matthew 6:11

Father, we thank You for providing for our needs, both physical and spiritual. Help us to be mindful of those in our communities who are in need, and may we share generously from the blessings You have given us.

As we serve in the Mothers' Union, may we always be a source of nourishment and care to those around us, just as You have cared for us.

In Jesus' Name, Amen. May we as Mothers' Union continue to share the bounty of Your love and provision with others, serving as a daily reminder of Your sustaining grace.

Wednesday: Forgive Us Our Trespasses, As We Forgive Those Who Trespass Against Us

In our journey with Christ, forgiveness is at the heart of healing. As members of the Mothers' Union, we are called to embrace forgiveness and extend grace to those who may have wronged us.

"Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors." Matthew 6:12

Lord, forgive us when we fall short, and help us to forgive others as You have forgiven us. May we live in peace with one another, embracing reconciliation and healing within our communities.

As we move forward in the Mothers' Union, may we exemplify the transformative power of Your forgiveness in all our relationships. In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.

May we as Mothers' Union embody the peace of forgiveness, bringing healing to our hearts and our world.

Thursday: Lead Us Not into Temptation, But Deliver Us from Evil

We are constantly faced with trials and challenges, yet God promises to protect us from harm. As members of the Mothers' Union, we are reminded to walk in His strength and trust in His deliverance.

"And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." Matthew 6:13

Lord, we know that You are our protector and deliverer. We pray for strength in the face of temptation and for Your guidance to lead us away from the snares of evil.

May we, as Mothers' Union, be a beacon of Your protection and light, bringing hope to those who are facing trials.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

May we as Mothers' Union always walk in Your protection, bringing light to a world in need of Your deliverance.

Friday: For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory, Forever and Ever, Amen

The kingdom of God is everlasting, and we give thanks for His sovereignty. We are called to live as citizens of His kingdom, extending His love and power through our lives and the work of the Mothers' Union.

"For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen." Matthew 6:13

Father, we give You all glory, honour, and praise. You are the ruler of all creation, and we are humbled to be a part of Your kingdom.

May Your power and glory be made known through our work in the Mothers' Union, as we serve Your people with grace and humility.

We thank You for the eternal hope we have in Christ. In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.

May we as Mothers' Union continue to live for Your kingdom, embodying Your power and glory in all that we do.

Saturday: A Prayer of Gratitude and Commitment

We are united in the love of Christ, and we offer our lives in service to His will. Through the Mothers' Union, we are blessed to walk in His footsteps, serving one another with love and dedication.

"We do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are unseen." 2 Corinthians 4:18

Lord, we thank You for the gift of the Mothers' Union and the strength You provide to us each day. May we always be committed to serving You and each other with love, kindness, and humility. We pray that our work will always reflect Your will and that we will continue to grow in faith as we walk together in Your light.

In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.

May we as Mothers' Union always cherish the gift of our calling, walking in the light of Christ and serving with grace and love.

Bumps and Babes St Margaret's Swindon

^{*}Bumps and Babes aims to provide a safe place for younger babies to explore, therefore the group is only open to babies up toa year old or until they are very mobile - you will be responsible for your child at all times. A babies and toddlers group runs in the St Margaret's Centre on a Wednesday and Friday where there are more age-appropriate toys for toddlers. Please contact us if you have a special request.

A woman is preparing a French dinner for her parents and sends her husband out to buy some fresh snails. The husband buys the snails then pops into the pub for a quick drink. One thing leads to another and he stays for a few rounds, so many in fact, that by the time he leaves it's nine in the evening. Realising he is extremely late the husband runs home, pours the snails over the path leading to his house, then rings the bell. His furious wife opens the door, "Where the heck have you been?" She screams. The husband waves back to the snails "Come on lads!" he shouts, "We're nearly there!"

A man is remonstrating with his lazy son. "All you do is sit about the house all day." "Well what would I get if I had a job?" says the son. "You'd get a wage and pension," replies the father. "You'd be able to settle down and retire and not work any more." "Yeah," replies the son. "But I do that now."

A woman walks into a Post Office and sees a man standing at the counter placing 'Love' stamps on bright pink envelopes. When an envelope has been stamped he sprays scent on it and posts it. The woman goes up to him and asks him what he's doing. The man replies "I'm sending out 1,000 Valentine cards signed Guess who?" "But why would you want to do that?" she asks the man and he replies "I'm a divorce lawyer."

 \odot

A salesman, tired of his job, gives it up to become a policeman. Several months later a friend asks him how he likes it. Well he replies the pay is good and the hours aren't bad, but what I like best is that the customer is always wrong.

 \odot

Mr. Smith to judge: "Your honour, my wife is being ridiculous. Most women would love to have a chivalrous husband. Who could object to having a car door opened for them?" "Mr. Smith", replies the judge, "It might be chivalrous to open a car door for your wife but not when you're driving at 65 miles per hour."

 \odot

Did you know that your car is most likely to be stolen when it's parked outside your house - that's why I park outside my neighbour's house...

 \bigcirc

Two bachelors are talking about cooking. "I got a cookbook once," says one. But I could never do anything with it. "Were the recipes too hard?" asks the other. "No" he replies, "But each of the recipes began the same way - take a clean dish....."

Imponderable time:

If corn oil is made from corn, and vegetable oil is made from vegetables, what is baby oil made from?

If I save time, when do I get it back?

Is it bad luck to be superstitious?

What did people go back to when the development of the world's first drawing board failed?

What if the hokey cokey really is what it's all about?

Why didn't Noah swat those two mosquitoes?

If crime fighters fight crime, and firefighters fight fire, what do freedom fighters fight?

If we are here to help others, what are the others here for?

You may be aware that many charities and organisations are struggling at this time, this includes churches.

Great News! You can now sign up to join the Parish Giving Scheme (PGS) online. There is a link for this on the Giving page of our website:

https://www.strattonteamministry.co.uk/giving/

If you haven't considered the PGS before, we would ask you to prayerfully consider doing so. It's very easy to sign up and it works in a similar way to a Direct Debit (that it is intended to replace), in that a regular payment authorised by you goes out either weekly, monthly or yearly straight to the church. It is perfectly safe and can be stopped or changed at any time.

PGS is a great way to give to the work and mission of St Margaret's Church. Donations given through PGS come straight to the Church, there are no admin fees or bank charges for us to pay. 41 people have now signed up to do this - Thank you
